

I understand that the FCC is reviewing New Jersey's "do not call" law, and I urge you to leave the law in place. Privacy is increasingly important in this age of mass telemarketing, emailing and junk mailing and aggressive marketers don't need any help from the FCC.